

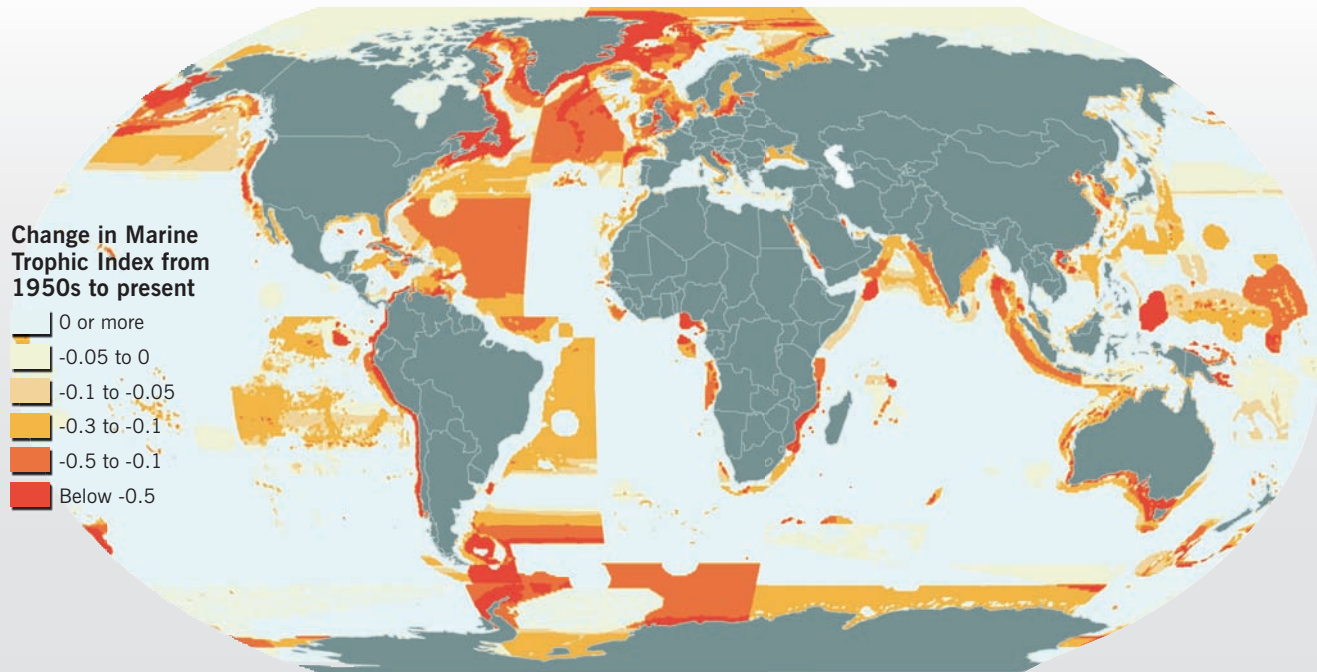

FIGURE 2.11 | Changes in the Marine Trophic Index (early 1950s to the present)

The dark red colouring represents areas of greatest change in the marine trophic index.
Note: The straight borders between colours represent artefacts of the underlying statistics.